* * * * *

The parties have entered into a settlement agreement in this matter and have jointly requested that the matter should be dismissed with prejudice, each side to bear its own costs. In light of the fact that the charging party is not seeking any type of affirmative relief, the hearing officer contacted the Human Rights Bureau to ascertain whether the Bureau wished to intervene to seek affirmative relief. The Bureau has indicated that it will not intervene to seek affirmative relief in this matter. In light of the foregoing, it is ordered that the parties' joint motion to dismiss is granted. The matter is dismissed with prejudice, each side to bear its own costs.
